

HOUSE OF NOT TO PERFORM PRE-CONCERT SHOW FOR THE WHITE STRIPES

Molson Amphitheatre * September 16 * 6:30 p.m.

TORONTO, Canada: House of Not is scheduled to play a pre-concert show for The White Stripes concert and their opening act The Greenhorns at the Molson Amphitheatre on September 16, 2005. The Molson Amphitheatre is one of the top concert venues in Canada with a 15,000 seat venue that combines a covered seating area with outdoor seating. House of Not will perform on the Molson Canadian Rockstar side stage in early evening, prior to The Greenhorns and The White Stripes.

“It is exciting for House of Not and their eight piece band to have the opportunity to play a pre-concert show at Molson Amphitheatre for The White Stripes – it is great exposure and a perfect venue for their big sound” noted Susan Smythe, founder of FreakStreet Productions, the Canadian indie label representing House of Not.

“House of Not’s live performances ‘bring to life’ the music and story of ‘The Walkabout’ – a rock odyssey - and are an important step to gaining the support for a European tour in 2006 and ultimately launching a full multimedia rock theatre presentation” commented Susan Smythe of FreakStreet Productions.

House of Not is a Canadian indie / progressive rock band that released their second album ‘Sexus’ in Europe, the U.S. and internationally in the spring of 2005 and released their first album “Off the Path” in September 2003 in Canada and internationally in September 2004. The albums, which are Part I and Part II of a five part rock odyssey entitled “The Walkabout”, have garnered critical acclaim from press and media throughout Europe and internationally and generated comparisons to bands such as Pink Floyd, Jefferson Airplane, Dire Straits, YES, Genesis and Queensryche.
